Rocket Host Task Requirements:

- The Poppo Live host must follow the platform's rules and take part in the platform activities.
- Update the recent live broadcast time on the personal homepage.
- To help talented male hosts grow on Poppo Live, the platform offers a base salary and high-ranking rewards, giving them a stage to showcase their talent.
- Live duration counts only for Solo Live (Party Live is not included).
- Solo Live can be valid for up to 2 hours per day.
- Platform rewards do not count toward the weekly income requirement.
- Hosts can complete tasks and claim rewards manually on the Rocket Host page.
- Rocket Hosts can start broadcasting from Wealth Level 1.

Rocket Host and Star Host Requirements:

- Set a qualified live broadcast cover, nickname, and avatar according to the Live Cover Rules.
- Present yourself neatly before going live; keep the camera at eye level or slightly above, showing the upper body clearly. Avoid being too far or too close.
- Make sure to stabilize the mobile phone before going live. Optional equipment like a good mic, fill lights, or a backdrop can improve your session.
- Ensure a good internet connection and avoid background noise.
- Play soothing background music to enhance your live broadcast (reduce or stop music when talking to users).
- Always face the camera, respond promptly to chats, and thank users for gifts.
- Greet every visitor who enters your live room and involve them in your live broadcast.
- If you don't show your face, have a bad internet connection, stream in a messy place, have poor lighting, or too much noise, it may result in Rocket Host cancellation.

If any male host wants to become a Rocket or Star Host, he needs to earn $250 continuously for 3 weeks.
